DOGMATICS: LAW AND SOCIETY IN THE ROMAN WORLD. Ed ...

This book is an important contribution to the current lively debate about the relationships between law and society in the Roman world. Its primary aim is to address specific areas of the law with a view to contributing to the larger debate. Beyond dogmatics law and society in the Roman world ... The literary sources tend to mention rules of procedure only in passing, and the juristic sources (to recall perhaps Watson's "law in books") usually follow their own currents: the real and the hypothetical are mixed together, and what is interesting or contentious gets more attention than what, for Roman litigants, was routine and unremarkable. Lawsuits in Context
